The story of "Andy" Friedman's con duct at the Polo grounds in New York on Monday, as detailed in a special i The Times vesterday morning, attracted much attention, and was the principal tople of conversation in baseball circles.

Priedman's action was denounced in all quarters, and the prevailing impression was that the sooner the National League is minus the presence of the New York magnate, the better it will be for the furnings. Stolen hase—DeMont. Double denounced. League International League Internat magnute, the better it will be for the future good of the game. In conversation with the sporting editor of The Times, a well-known enthusiast said:

St. Louis..... 24 64

When this man Friedman broke into the National League as a magnate a few years ago, there occurred the most grievous and serious disaster that could possibly have happened to the national game. His presence in this great organization has been a source of discord and trouble.

be turned his eye of displeasure on President N. E. Young, and heaped abuse upon Uncle Nick's head without good reason and for which there is no excuse. His trouble with Rusie, occasioned by overbearing and tyrannical treatment is still fresh in the minds of the public. The settlement of this transle was brought about by the other League magnates, who went down in their pockets and paid Rusle maney justly due him from Priedman and illegally withheld, in order that no smirch might attach to the name of no smirch might attach to the name of the National League. Passing over other petty persecutions of ball players which would disgrace even a Spaniard, we come down to his treatment of John Heydier, whom he accused falsely, and whose honor he sought to impeach. Heydier, who is the soul of honor and incapable of a dishonest action, promptly resigned for the reason, as stated to a friend, that when it come to being accused of crookwhen it come to being accured of crook-ed business by such a man as Fried-man, he could not stand for it. Fried-man then promulgated a 159 word tele-gram which was intended to retire not of the twelve magnates.

"The telegram occasioned no surprise coming as it did from Friedman. It was egated to the tomb of pity and disjust and it was thought that Friedman had reached the end of his tomfoolecy, but not so. His recorrers in this lirection seem to be un'mitted.

"On Monday no again made an exhi-bition of himself and brought discore

"So it will be seen his display of bad temper will prove costly and at that will be a very small proportion of the loss he will eventually sustain. The attendance at future games is difficult to estimate b will amount to the loss of thousands of dollars, and all because a ball player pre-sumed to call him a 'sheeney.' thus connecting him with Jews, which he seems to consider a personal diegrace.

"What the respectable Jews of New York City and the country will think is a matter of conjecture. One thing, how eyer, is certain. He will in the fu known all over the country as Friedman the Sheeney,

With reference to the fines he has in curred the thousand dollar one must be paid within ten days and the fine of one hundred dollars within five days.

"In case such penalties are not paid within the time named the club and its players cannot participate in a champion-"In justice to the same and in the in-rest of law and order I trust the naities will be strictly enforced and that the league will maintain its no dienal dignity and honor."

FRIEDMAN'S FOLLY.

Be Now Asks Hanlon to Return a Check,

Bultimore, July 26-(Special).-President Andrew Friedman today sent a telegram to the newspaper reporters, which was read to them in the press box at the ball grounds. In his telegram, Mr. Friedman states that Holmes used insulting language at the Polo grounds yesterday not only to him but to the Jewish race and the Hebrew patrons of the game and for that reason the game was forfeitedrather than allow "Ducky" to continue Moreover, the telegram says that Holmes would not be allowed to en-ter the Polo grounds when the Baltimore team again visits New York. When Manager Hanlon was told of this, he

"I do not see how Mr. Priedman can keep Holmes or any other player out of the grounds. There is a board appoint-ed by the National League to discipline

A demand was made upon Hanlon by Friedman's representatives for the check given him yesterday before the row occurred, but the Baltimore manager decilhed to surrender. The threat was taked that payment would be stopped.

whereupon Han'on said if this was done THE BANE OF BASEBALL whereupon Han'on said if this was done he would carry the matter before the League and demand the forfeit.

TWAS A GREAT GAME.

Thirteenth Inning,

Baltimere, July 26.-The Giants and Orioles today played the greatest game that has been seen here this season. For thirteen innings the two teams struggled for gin. In almost every inning after the third there was some sensational plays made. Not only was the work of both pitchers first class, but the support given was also of the gilt edge order. The two misplays made by the New York, however, were costly, for the one by Tiernan in the thirteenth was nearly responsible for get a man past second after the third in-ning until the thirteenth, when they man-aged to score and took the game. #### PHILLIES IN THE LEAD.

But Rain Stops the Game in the Fourth Inning. Philadelphia, July 26.-Two men had been retired in the Washington's half of the fourth inning yesterday afternoon when rain began falling heavily and play was stopped. In the first inning the Phillies scored three runs on Douglass's dou-ble. Delchanty's single, and McFarland's triple. Gettman made a great effort for McParland's triple. Gettman made a great effort for McParland's hit, and but for the high wind the chances are that he would have captured it. Only one hit was made off Orth, but it was a corker, a home run drive by Anderson over the right field wall. This was one of the longest hits ever made on the grounds and the mean ever made on the grounds, and that goes, Anderson was deprived of another hit in the fourth by a great catch by Delehanty. It is likely that this afternoon a street parade will be held in which all of the parace win be need in whiten an of the riders connected with the blg contest will take part. The arrangements will not be definitely made until the arrival of the midget and his party, some time this forenoon. It is proposed to have a full brass band in a large wagon, followed by the pacing crews of the two riders, all mounted on the multicycles they will use in the race. They will have the regulation racing shirt on, but will wear regular blevele trousers. Michael and Moran will occupy carriages, together with the offi-cials of the event. The parade will be held over the principal streets of the

Michael and his crew are expected to reach the city about 10 o'clock this morning, coming over on an early morning train. After the race last evening at Baltimore with Fred Titus, he spent the remainder of the night in Baltimore, not caring to make the trip to this city around midnight in a tired condition. He keeps very regular hours when in training, and race meets generally do not affect his schedule as most of his races up North are run in the afternoon. His race last night in Baltimore, and his race this evening at the park track are the only two night events he has enter-

Perrin Bond Is Fined for Carrying a Gun. Perrin Bond, colored, was before Judge

Mills yesterday afternoon, charged with carrying concealed weapons. The policeman who made the arrest claimed that Bond aimed a pistol at a man and fired. A colored boy who saw the shooting testified when cross-examined by Attorney Moss, that the men were "bout two yards apart"." "How many feet are in a yard?" asked the attorney.

"Don't know," answered the boy, "Well, show the judge how far apart the men were." men were."
"Bout de length of de court room," explained the witness.
A fine of $50 was imposed, the defendant having already been fined $10 for shoots ing in the street.
